Inventory of Contents in a Deceased Person's Bank Deposit Box
(Rented in Sole Name or Jointly with Other Persons)

Please read the following instructions carefully before you fill in the form.

1. Pursuant to section 60D(11) of the Probate and Administration Ordinance, only the following person can apply for a copy (or a certified true copy) of the copy of the inventory of the contents in a deceased person's bank deposit box – kept by the Director of Home Affairs under section 60D(8) of the Probate and Administration Ordinance:-
 - (a) any person who has a legitimate interest in the estate of the deceased person; or
 - (b) the surviving renter.
2. When submitting the application, the applicant must enclose a copy each of the following documents:-
 - (a) the identity card/passport of the applicant;
 - (b) any document evidencing the relationship between the deceased person and the applicant, such as marriage or birth certificate, if the applicant is not the surviving renter; and
 - (c) the last will of the deceased person, if any, and if the applicant is not the surviving renter.
3. We reserve the right to call for any additional supporting documents in relation to the application.
4. On approval of the application, the applicant is required to pay fees for the photocopying or certification service.

IMPORTANT NOTES

Where a document is required for legal or official purposes, normally the original or a certified true copy of the document should be presented. The applicant is advised to ascertain whether a copy or a certified true copy is required for his purpose before making the application.
