

Description of Visuals of the Television Announcement for 2023 Rural Ordinary Election – Polling Days

English V/O script and subtitles:

Description of visuals :                      Opening scene is a background of watercolour plants with text shown on screen “2023 Rural Ordinary Election”.
The Male VO says:

Male VO :                                      The Rural Ordinary Election includes

Description of visuals :                      The camera zooms in and the image of the Spiral Lookout Tower in Tai Po appeared. There is an animation of an elderly couple and two women strolling along the tower. The text on screen shows “Village Representative Election (Indigenous Inhabitant Representative Election and Resident Representative Election) Election Day: January 8”
The Male VO says:

Male VO :                                      the Village Representative Election on January 8,

Description of visuals :                      The camera zooms in and passes the tower. A “bun tower” and an animated ferry moving forward near an outlying island appeared. An animation of a group of seven residents gathers beneath a bun tower, watching the Bun Scrambling Competition. The text on screen shows, “Kaifong Representative Election Election Day: January 15”
The Male VO says:

Male VO :                                      and the Kaifong Representative Election on January 15.

Description of visuals :                      The camera zooms in and passes over the island. There is an animation of a farmer, a woman, an elderly standing on an animated grassland, and a man sat in the middle playing a ukulele . The text on screen shows, “Registered Eligible Electors ”
The Male VO says:

Male VO :                                      Registered eligible electors

Description of visuals :	The camera moves up and shows three ballot boxes which are coloured in white, red and blue respectively. The text above the red and white ballot boxes shows, "Village Representative Election Election Day: January 8" The text above the blue ballot box shows, "Kaifong Representative Election Election Day: January 15" A piece of white document appears above the red and blue ballot boxes. The text on the document shows, "ORIGINAL identity document" The Male VO says:
Male VO :	please bring your original identity document to vote.
Description of visuals :	Next scene shows an animation of a truck moving on a highway. Tsing Ma Bridge and village houses appear in the background. The text on the truck shows, "Moved away from the registered existing village or market town". When the truck moves on, the text at the upper left shows, "Resident Representative Election Kaifong Representative Election". The Male VO says:
Male VO :	An elector for the Resident or Kaifong Representative Election who has moved away from the registered existing village or market town
Description of visuals :	The truck keeps moving to the bottom right corner of the scene. An animated white and orange ballot papers appear in the middle and the texts on the two sides of the scene show, "Resident Representative Election" and "Kaifong Representative Election". And then a "prohibited" sign appears on the two ballot papers. The Male VO says:
Male VO :	is not eligible to vote.
Description of visuals :	In the end scene, the image of Hong Kong Wetland Park in Yuen Long appears. The text at the top shows, "2023 Rural Ordinary Election www.had.gov.hk/rre

2152 1521”

The Male VO says:

Male VO :

For enquiries, please call 2152 1521